SCORE THIS!!! PRESENTS A TRIATHLON FOR ALL AGES

ORCHARD PARK, N.Y., June 22, 2009 — On Sunday, July 5 the annual Clark Companies' A Tri in the Buff triathlon will take place at Evangola State Park.

The event, managed by Score This!!!, will kickoff at 7:30 a.m., and will include several race distances depending on experience level and age. The sport of triathlon involves a combination of swimming, biking and running. A kids' distance triathlon will take place in addition to a "Try-a-Tri" race for novice triathletes. Both races are shorter distances that are age and skill-level appropriate.

"A Tri in the Buff event is the perfect opportunity for people to come out and experience the sport of triathlon firsthand," said Rich Clark, Race Director of Score This!!!. "We really hope that young kids and adults will be inspired to take advantage of this event as a starting point to become further involved in triathlon's wealth of lifetime fitness benefits."

The kids' race is for children ages 6-14, and the Tri-a-Tri is for beginner triathletes of all ages. Age groups in the sprint triathlon, intermediate distance and duathlon range from 15-19 to 85+.
